Chapter 1 by Sabrina

She was a young girl with wild hair and pale skin. Her dreams and smile defined her beauty with such grace and purity. Yet again her bad habits follow her like shadows In the night. A cigarette was never out of her plum red lips, her nails were constantly a mess, for her biting got worse. The drugs made her body numb and make her visit her little world and loose touch with reality. She was such a beautiful mess, a devil with an angel mask.
